Background Konica Minolta Business Solutions (M) Sdn Bhd (KMBS) has come a long way since the incorporation of City Marketing Sdn Bhd (CMSB) in 1981 as the trading arm of Konica Minolta Business Solutions (S) Pte Ltd, (formerly known as Minolta Singapore Pte. Ltd.,). CMSB was initially set-up to take over control of Minolta Camera business in Malaysia. Consecutive years of growth transformed the company into a viable player in the local Office Automation (OA) industry. CMSB takes on a name change to Minolta

Marketing (M) Sdn Bhd in August 1988. In August 2003, Konica Corporation and Minolta Co., Ltd. integrated their respective managements and established a holding company, Konica Minolta Holdings, Inc., founded on the concept of creating an entirely new corporate group. After the management integration, on 1st October 2003, our Company name was changed to Konica Minolta Business Solutions (M) Sdn Bhd., to reflect a stronger identity.

As Konica Minolta Holding Inc. applied the technological strength it acquired to steadily expand its business environment whilst progressively globalizing its operations, KMBS became a major force in the local OA industry. Today, KMBS has become one of the largest and widest networked organizations in the local OA industry with 14 branches throughout Malaysia.

Reflecting on the rapid development in digital communications amidst the onslaught of Information Technology (IT), KMBS has been gradually shifting its business focus towards Image Information Products and Total Colour Solutions. The slogan "The Essentials Of Imaging" strategically positions itself in the digitization mainstream.

KMBS is highly committed to continuously serving customers with better quality products and services through continuous improvements in the working culture of organization. KMBS application for ISO 9001:2000 certification had been accepted and approved through adequacy audit by BVQI on August, 2003.

Looking into the future of an ever-challenging millennium, KMBS aims to contribute significantly to the advancement of local business and social community by creating even greater value and excellence in product offerings and services. KMBS will dedicate itself to provide its users with quality digital products and customer friendly services.
